Summary: the saiyan raiden who defeated demigra joins the mass effect universe to show no matter what universe nothings better then a saiyan

1. the saiyan

Currently walking around toki toki city was the saiyan raiden,who stood about 6:2 he had spiky black hair with one bang loose (like mystic gohan) had a red bandanna wrapped around his head(like bardock), black eyes like all pure saiyans, very muscled like most saiyans and had his monkey tail wrapped around his waist . he was wearing his black gi with red sweat band and red boots (think goku new outfit in dragon ball super) it had been five months since the defeat of demigra and Raiden was board doing the same thing everyday,wake up,train ,go on time patrol missions , he needed a change or he was going to go insane, so he decided to talk to his best friend and time patroller partner trunks briefs about his problem, trunks had told him maybe he was stressed and have the week off to de stress and have fun.

Trunks briefs the half saiyan/human hybrid, had long purple hair(like after he came out of timebolic chamber he looks cooler with long hair to me) and blue yes and was wearing a black leather coat going down to just under his knees it had a fur around the neck which was light brown and wearing a green turtle neck jumper underneath with orange gloves and olive colourer trousers with light green leg wraps on the bottom of his legs with orange boots and had his sword on his back.

After having a talk with raiden he deicide to have a talk with the z fighters about what should he do about his best friend problem it was weird seeing raiden so down as he was always cheerful he was like a younger goku in some ways with his cheerful attitude and will to protect his friend.

So he called the z fighter over to capsul corps to discuss what they think raiden should do, upon entering he saw goku with his black palm tree hair and wearing his orange gi with blue under shirt with blue wrist bands and boots, his father with his flame like hair he was wearing his saiyen amour (same one he wore during cell games) gohan with the same hair style as raiden (tho raidens hair was natural that he had all his life) and same eyes as well wearing a copy of his dad's gi, videl with her short spiky black hair and blue eyes wearing a white shirt that went down to her knees and black shorts and purple shoes and black fingerless gloves, killin was wearing a gi the same as goku and was bald again, 18 was wearing a jean jacket and skirt with black leggings a white t-shirt and black boots, his mother bulma with her blue hair that went down to her shoulder and blue eyes which he got from her) and was wearing a red dress that went down to just above her knees and was wearing a lab coat, kid trunks had short hair like he used to (before he went into the time chamber) and was wearing his green gi with orange boots and wrist bands, goten who was wearing a copy of his dad's gi but with a long sleeve top underneath and was a mini goku with the hair and the namek piccolo who was a green skinned alien wearing his white turban, purple gi, this weighted cape and brown pointed shoes. master roshi an bald old man with a beard wearing his red sun glasses and yellow shirt white shorts.

Upon seeing trunks bulma ran to him and gave him the biggest hug possible then shouted at him for not visiting more often making him go red in the face in embarrassment and everyone just laughed at him except vegeta and piccolo who smirked at him though vegeta was glad to see him not that he would ever say it out loud though.

Hi everyone thanks for coming I got a problem that I really need help with said trunks causing everyone to look at him.

It's about raiden he said causing them to look surprised as they had all met him one time or another though the people who really knew him the most was goku and vegeta being the last full-blooded saiyens alive they had a sort of kinship as raiden saw them as older brothers and the others having trained him at some point though he outlived them training as he became one of the most powerful warriors out there (he can only go up to ssj2)

he said he been getting pretty bored doing the same thing since he defeated demigra (he defeated him alone as I wanted him to be the hero in xenoverse as goku always saves the day in dbz) all he does is wake up, train, do a few missions, repeat same thing every day he said if this keeps up he going to go insane, i told him to have the week off to distress, but I don't know what to do in the long run about his problem so any ideas what I should tell him trunks asked the z fighters.

Goku thinking long and hard about the solution snaps his fingers as an idea comes to mind "how about he go exploring the galaxy and go adventuring it keep him busy for awhile and it means getting away from his job" he suggests to trunks.

Trunks thinking about it does seem like a good idea as he hasn't left toki toki since his arrival nearly 1 year ago "hmm you do make a good point it sounds odd but he was more happier when the whole time he was in battles that were actually life or death around the corner he said causing vegeta to laugh causing the z fighter to look at him

"that's his saiyen blood in him it craves for action there a difference then sparing and really fighting he needs it why do you think when me and kakerot fight there always blood " he smirked " and hes a full blooded saiyen at that like us why he needs to battle more then the half saiyens.

Gohan spoke up : well why doesn't he take some time away from the time patrol he been doing the sane thing for the last year now and I don't think ive ever seen him do anything other then train every day he was be going nuts if that's all he does umm no offence vegeta" he chuckled nervously at the end while looking at the look vegeta gave him causing everyone to laugh at the two.

Bulma then said " well why doesn't he go back home surly he had people he knew before he got summoned by the dragon" she asked trunks he wont I asked him the same thing an he told me he came from the time period when freezer came to planet vegeta and he refused to work with them with ended with his exile from the planet" trunks said getting shocked looks from everyone but none more then vegeta and goku as they never really asked his origin after the first time they asked he had a sad look in his eyes but they assumed it was because he found out he was a saiyen not a human, when they trained together.

Then master roshi said" well why doesn't he get a sexy lady in his life then he wont be BOARD if you know what I mean hehehehe" earning a punch in the face from bulma as she muttered perv " causing the z fighters to last at the old master.

Goten who was sitting next to kid trunks said "hey I know why doesn't he use the dragon ball to go somewhere new " he grinned , while kid trunks just looked at his friend and said " HEY! You said something smart"causing everyone to last at the two boys.

Trunks thought the idea was a good one and smiled "thats a great idea goten I get the dragon balls and ask to send him somewhere he needed most I go tell him I know what to do " trunks said just as he was about to leave goku stopped him.

Wait don't tell him lets give him a farewell party to thank him for all the work he's done and so we can all say goodbye to him" goku said with getting nods all round.

Alright I go tell the supreme kai of time" trunks said he smiled leaving everyone to plan the party for raiden as he headed to toki toki city to find his boss and told her the plan and she smiled as she had been seeing how depressed raiden had been getting no that she could blame him of course this place did get boring after a while and she should know she been there for 75,000 million years(tell me if its wrong)and agreed with the plan,then trunks went to look for his friend to distract for the next few days while everyone either planed for the party or find the dragon balls,he found his friend at the food court eating to his hearts consent he laugh at his own joke.

Raiden was eating at the food court that his face looked like a chipmunk with the amount of food he was shovelling down the noddles "aww even if my life suck at least I have my food " he grinned as he was about to leave he saw trunks coming over.

"Hey trunks " raiden greeted his best friend which was weird as only knowing him for only a year as raiden didn't have many friend on planet vegeta as he didn't have the cruel nature his fellow saiyan had and was often called a disgrace to his race and weak which was funny thinking about it as he was one of the strongest in the universe though thinking about his planet brought sadness to him I just couldn't believe it was gone now and only 3 full-blooded saiyan left, shakeing them thoughts away he saw trunks take the seat next to him.

So then what you been up to trunks "raiden said looking at him.

Trunks started sweating trying to think of answer "oh you know just the normal bussiness with the boss so you up for a spar,he asked.

Yeah "raiden said before he smirked "you sure you can keep up" he challenged trunks.

Smirking back he relied " so how we doing this ki blast or sticking to swords" as trunks was better with the sword then raiden while trunks had the tapion sword, raiden had his black bladed katana swords with a red handle and black sheaths strapped to his back the sheaths were both crossed over each other to allow him to reach them over his shoulders the swords are made from katchin the strongest metal in the universe . " lets try swords for today I still need the practise with it, well lets use your gravity chamber better workout there.

With trunks agreeing with the idea they both head for the time patrol head quarters and trunks throws the capsul containing his gravity chamber an with a poof the chamber appearers the two enter it and trunks set it to 300 times gravity trunks drew his sword out, as did raiden drawing his katanas both got into battle stances staring at each other before they charged at each other despairing from sight then appeared with the swords clashing , trunks did a downwards slash while raided crossed his swords to block the attack then kicking trunks always then doing the a spinning attack just as trunks rolled out the way to avoided the attack then both charged again doing rapid sword movements that was had to see to the normal eye could see trunks started getting the upper hand being the more advance swordsman started pushing raiden back, raiden jumped back to avoid trunks move.

How about we take this up a level" raiden said then turn ssj1 his hair turned golden and his eyes turned green,"ready" he asked trunks though his voice sounded a little deeper then before.

Trunks nodded then with a shout he turned ssj1 aswell his hair went spikier and his eyes went green aswell,"lets put the swords away and get serious" he said as he put the sword away as raiden follows suit then they both charge at each other trading punches and kicks, trunks went for a punch but raiden blocked it with his arm then he jumped up and kicked trunks in the head knocking him back, trunks then shoots some ki blasts with raiden doing his best to dodge them though one hits him and knocks him into the wall, using instant transmission to appear behind trunks kicks him in the back then using, IT(instant transmission)to get in front of him and kicks him up into the air then using, IT, to appear above him and kicks him back to the ground, damn he win if he keeps this up looking at his friend trunks spreads his arm out as to golden balls appear in both his hands then bringing them together he yells

FINAL FLASH as a giant beam of yellow energy shoots towards raiden

Raiden seeing what he was doing cupes his hand together as a blue ball of ki appears as he chants kaaa...meeee...haaa...meeee...HAAAAAA he roared as he pushed his hands forwards sending the blue beam towards trunks with both beams hitting each other both attacks fighting for dominance until raiden attack started getting closer to trunks and hit him into the wall causing trunks to exit his ssj1 form as clapped's on the floor, raiden returns to base form and walks over to trunks and takes an energy bean to trunks who once eating it he jumps up from the floor.

Great match raiden " trunks smiled at him before raiden and trunks belly's growled they looked at each other then burst out laughing, training always makes me hungry " raiden grin as trunks laughed in agreement come on let eat my treat " said trunks as they left the gravity chamber ,and raiden was never one to turn down free food followed after him.

A FEW DAYS LATER

A few days later raiden was called to capsule corps for some reason by trunks, he was wearing his bandanna around his head the one of the last thing he got from his mother, and he was wearing his saiyen uniform no under shirt it was black with a red chest and shoulder straps and red arm bands , black bottoms, and black boots with red tips(think bardocks armour but replace the green with red, and in case you haven't figured it out I really like black and red :D)with his two swords on his back.

Walking up to the front door he rang the bell and wait but no answer pushing the door to see if it was open and it was he pushed it open and yelled " HELLO ANYONE HERE" hearing no answer he walked through the house and got to the back door seeing no was in side as soon as he got outside.

SURPRISE " everyone yelled as they showed themselves "guys you know it not my birthday right " raiden said shock still after the near heart attack "goku came up to him and patted his shoulder and smiled and said " we know but trunks told us how good you been getting so we came up with the idea of sending somewhere you be needed the most with the dragon balls "said goku shocking raiden.

And so we thought this would be a good time to say good bye to you and thanks for what you done for us" finished goku with a smile.

Thanks guys " raiden said these guys really had become a part of his family this past year.

Bulma came up to raiden with a capsul in her hand " here a good bye present I know how you saiyan like to train so I made you a gravity chamber that can go up to 2000 times gravity and thanks for saving us from demigra and towa and mira in the past she said as she gave him a quick kiss on the cheek making him go red in the face causing everyone to laugh at him.

Thanks bulma I been meaning to ask you for oneâ€¦. The gravity chamber that is hehehe said raiden.

Vegeta came up next " so raiden(thats his saiyan name hence why he would say it)its been good knowing that there another saiyan whos still alive, where ever you go show them the pride of a saiyan warrior "he smirked before chucking him a capsul"here no dout you be ruining your amour there some spares" he said before walking over next to bulma, thanks vegeta I owe you you one" he smirked at the vegeta.(the amour are like the one raiden is wearing now and the one vegeta wears in dbz super) goku came up next with his goofy smile " well I sad that I dont have my sparring partner no more but I wish you luck for the future" he said as he handed him a capsul with a taining gi (gokus orange and blue gi just black gi and red under shirt) before shaking hands

Dont worry goku you still got vegeta, raiden smiled as he looked at the two full-blooded saiyans.

Gohan and videl came up next well its been good training with you this place wont be the same without pal tho I wish you luck for the future " gohan smiled as he held his hand out tho raiden gave him the warrior hand shake as he grab his fore arm with gohan doing the same.

Videl came up to him and gave him a hug goodbye and said "well guess this is good bye you take care off yourself or I come find you and kick your arse she smiled.

Hehe well it looks like your have to find someone else to torch...i mean for training he smiled at her killen and 18 came up " well this is it still hard to belive when u came here I was the master now im the student well I surpose thats to be expected from you saiyan I miss the trainning but good luck out there he smiled as he shock raidens hand while 18 just noddod not wanting to show emotions no good bye hug 18 sniff you must hate me oh woe is he " he smirked at the red blush on her face due to embarrassment , " shut it brat " 18 said before she hugged him good bye " aww the fells" god your annoying" THE FEELS " raiden said as everyone laughed at the pair pico came over and put a hand on his shoulder and said " well my old student I been good this last year dont forget to keep training were other you go and good luck "he smiled then went to join the others trunks came with a smile " well pal I been good this last year knowing you we couldnt have fought towa or mira or demigra without you I guess this is goodbye trunks said handing him a present wrapped in red paper raiden took the present and opened it to find a coat it was black with red trimmings with the four star dragon ball logo on the front and back(its the four star dragonball outfit coat) smiling as he took his swords off then put the coat on the the swords he looked at trunks and said "thanks trunks you were my first and best friend here I couldn't ask for a better partner so this isnt good bye just a see you later raiden said as he hugged trunks (bro-hug) trunks nodded yeah I see you around pal he smiled an joined the others.

The supreme kai of time came over smiling at the saian and said well hear we are this place is going to be quite without you around so I made you this with bulma so you can travel back to the time patrol whenever you want she said as she gave him a capsul with the machine inside(its like trunks time machine but travel dimensions) kneeling down he gave her a big hug as she was like a little sister to him(even tho she was over 75 million years old) looking over as kid trunks and goten came over they looked a little sad " hey guys how you doing he asked the too"were ok we just wish you went leaving " goten said sadly while he and kid trunks looked at the floor with trunks agreeing "raiden signed as he kneeled down and hugged the too as they cryed into his shoulders he eventerly pulled back and looked at the too "come on guys your saian warriors we dont cry and besides its not for ever I be back one day and you too better be stronger then even gotenks " he smiled as they wiped there eyes and grinned at him and giving him one last hug goodbye.

Everyone gathered round the seven dragon balls as raiden said :
ETERNAL DRAGON,BY YOUR NAME,I SUMMON YOU FORTH:SHENRON!"

as soon as he said these words a long green snake like body came out off the dragon balls with a dragon head with glowing red eyes and in a deep voice

YOU WHO HAVE SUMMONED ME I GRANT YOU THREE WISHES STATE THEM NOW SO I CAN RETURN TO MY SLUMBER

my first wish is for a bag full of sensu beans, as he said this a bag full of sensu beans appeared in his hands

YOUR WISH HAS BEEN GRANTED

my second wish is to have my money converted to the currency to the money in the new universe I go

YOUR WISH WILL BE GRANTED

my final wish is to be sent to a universe that needs my help

YOUR WISHES HAVE BEEN GRANTED FAREWELL

the dragon said as it disappeared and the dragon balls shot off around the earth and everyone saw raiden despairing raiden shouted BYE GUYS TAKE CARE OFF YOURSELF he smiled as they all smiled and waved expect vegeta and piccolo who just nodded at him as he disappeared .

2. eden prime

Raiden appeared in a flash of white (how he appears in xenoveres) and looking around it looked a lot like earth blue sky's, lush green grass, lakes full off water, it was pretty peaceful here he thought looking around .

"hmm well might as well explore this planet " raiden said to himself as he took off into the air to explore this plant making sure the capsules were in his pocket and his swords were secure , flying around the planet he couldn't see why he was sent here everything seemed peaceful so he decide to search for power levels and he could barely feel any as they only had a power level of 10-15 but that was to be expected when dealing with non trained humans, deciding to go meet them he flew north as he saw white square buildings "_hmm strange looks like they have square __building__ instead of round_" raiden thought to himself, he decided to stop before he was near them "_ knowing the humans there probably not used to seeing people fly like the ones from my dimension_" he thought to himself as he dropped behind a one of the square building, he walked down a hill seeing people digging something out off the ground as he was nearing the dig site when he was stopped by people in strange amour and pointing guns at him

HALT! Said the one of the soldiers clearly the leader,so not wanting to start a fight put his hands above his head, the solders seeing this relaxed a bit seeing this raiden said trying to sound like he had amnesia hi could you tell me were I am last thing I remember was when I was in Japan (I know dbz doesn't have a Japan but its the only place I could think off were he would be allowed to carry swords) the last thing I remember was getting hit in the back off the head then I wake up and here I am " raiden smiled as the solders looked at each other then back at raiden to see if he was lying "_ good thing I have a hell of a poker face_" thought raiden to himself as he held an emotionless face to the soldier, a alliance solder(raiden doesn't know that tho) who had white amour with pink design with a helmet was looking at the stranger and she had to admit he was a looker "_who the hell carries swords in this day and age_" she thought looking at the two Japanese swords tied to his back "_ and a coat no amour any wear on him is he looking to die_" looking at her her commander of the 212th " sir maybe he telling the truth I mean he got no amour no guns and he carrying swords who does that in this day and age " she whisperer to her captain.

Captain o' Reilly (oc) who was wearing blue alliance heavy amour(like the ones wore in mass effect 3) thought about what his gunnery chief Ashley Williams said and it was true looking at the man he had spiky hair that seemed to defy gravity,black eyes "weird_" a black and red coat, black trousers , black boots with red tips , and on his back he had two katanas.

"what your name stranger " said O'Reilly in an Irish voice to the man who still had his hands above his head " raiden sir " the man relied "OK_ not gonna lie thats a cool name " _thought Ashley "just raiden" asked the captain, " yes sir I never knew my parents so I do know what my last name is" raiden replied, "_ok this will __probably__ be really stupid idea" _thought the captain " what year is it " asked the captain getting looks from his squad "_ shit ummm god make something up raiden QUICK "_shouted at himself " 2016 sir " he replied casually though inside he was panicking "_ god be right and not let this be the 1900 s) " 2016 that's was over that was nearly 200 years ago"_thought Ashley " 2016 are you fucking with me raiden " the captain said while looking into raidens eyes to make sure he wasn't bullshiting him seeing that he wasn't he said " the year is 2183 ce " what but thats not possible I mean I was just in Japan 2016 he said in a shocked voice tho inside he was relived "_damn that was a close one hehehe if I said I came from the future I would of seamed nuts but then again I still could" _raiden joked to himself.

Everyone just looked at raiden to see if he was lying but found nothing that would make him look like a lier , the captain looked at him and said " perhaps you should sit down sir , do you have a head ache by any chance " yes a killer one at that ever since I woke up " raiden replied "_hmm maybe they think im confused an let me off with all the questions "thought raiden _, and as it turned out thats accaucky what they thought as they took him down by the dig site and sat him down and handed him a head ache pill (I think they still have them in the future) and a bottle of water and left him a solder named Ashley Williams to talk too, she seamed pretty down to earth in raidens point of view though she wouldn't kill her to drop the sir shit, raiden thought to himself , raiden got up and with the solders say so, spoke to the dig sites members they seemed pretty cool and what ever they were digging up was all hush hush and wernt allowed to talk about it. All in all it was a nice place to settle down _" maybe I should find a wife and have a army of little saiyans running around, who knows maybe there are saiyans still alive in this universe * signing * that would be nice "_raiden thought to himself.

A FEW HOURS LATER

It was getting close to dawn when these Gray humanoid creatures attack the base they had Gray skin glowing blue eyes and what looked like pipes in there necks and all over there body before anyone knew what was happing they rushed down to the camp and killed anyone in there way and worse they didn't have any power levels meaning they were androids or they were dead but they didn't have any halo above there heads " _maybe death is different here and there is no after life " _raiden thought as he drew his swords out to engage the husks as he had dubbed them slicing the arms and heads off them they seemed brainless they didn't really have an attack strategy they just charged at who ever was the closest to them ,the alliance soldiers started shooting them tho there weapons seemed to over heat preventing them from killing all of them, as they started to take there health down they let out a huge scream and the alliance solderers shields went down as the husks jumped on them and started clawing and biting them as they screamed as they died a painful death raiden who was killing the husks with the swords and ki blast which shocked everyone never seeing an attack like that before, then to everyone shock he started to pick the geth up like they were bags of sugar and rip them apart like they were paper, then saw some weird robots with one eye with some sort with guns started to shoot down at the camp raiden then charged at them as they shot him he disappeared behind them and cut them to pieces then as a huge juggernaut came charging at him from the other side of the battle field raiden put his middle and index fingers on his forehead as purple electricity charged : SPECIAL BEAM CANON raiden roared as he pointed his fingers towards as a purple beam that spun in a spiral towards the juggernaut hitting it in the chest destroying it in the processes running though the camp slashing the creatures with his swords that got in his way as he flew down the hill trying to find any survivors , and kill any husk or geth (he doesn't know there geth) that get in his way, as he landed he ran down the path putting his swords away he started shooting the geth with his ki blasts , as they charged at him he started punching and kicking them as they got close to him smashing them to pieces

"_hmm they really should make these out of better material " _he smirked , he then ran down to the bottom of the hill ,as he got to the bottom he found Ashley and two doctors who were panicking

(not Ashley) who upon seeing raiden still alive smiled a bit,

"Ashley thank god your still alive were are the other" raiden asked but as soon as he saw her face he knew "_well shit if I was being more alert instead of working my cover story they would still be _here" thought_ raiden sadly "were the only ones who made out off camp " she relied sadly, then you need to go look for other alliance soldiers there has too be more still alive in the area ,i get these too safety ,there a hut up the hill " raiden said to her " what I cant just leave you here while I run away " she said angrily at raiden " look ash either you leave a get help or you stay and we trap ourself here and all die your choice " he told her, there was something in his eyes that told her that she could trust him, nodding at him she replied " ok raiden get them to safety and don't die I don't want to be the only person at you funeral " she smirked at him before running towards the woods.

Right you two I don't want you to freak out but I got to do this " he said before he picked them up and carried them under his arm and flew them to the camp up the hill scaring them as he defied gravity and shot off the ground.

" right you two git in there an don't open it for anyone am I clear " he said and they were still to shocked to answer so they just nodded and ran into the building and locked it tight, turning ssj1 he shot off flying into the air to see if he could find any more survivors and kill the bastards that killed everyone here.

COMMANDER SHEPHERD

Commander Jane shepherd was a young woman around the age of 25 (I know she meant to be older but I wanted her a bit closer to raidens age who is 25 as well) at the height of 5;8

she had beautiful red hair that went to her shoulders, jade coloured eyes, a few freckles that went across her nose and the top of her cheeks had creamy coloured skin pink lips, she was wearing her medium n7 amour which hugged all her feminine curves and had her avenger rifle in hands and was shooting down the geth that had just killed her team mate corporal Jenkins, looking down at his body as staff lieutenant kaidan alenko, who was a man in his early thirties he was wearing medium black amour he had short black hair, brown eyes (I think) tanned skin, he closed the eyes of the corporal before looking at the commander and shaking his head.

They ripped though his shields never stood a chance " kaidan said to shepherd looking down at the body.

I make sure he receives a proper send off when this is all done but I need you to stay focused shepherd said. "_god can I sound any more like a bitch "_thought shepherd to herself, it sounded harsh but the mission was to find the beacon at all cost.

"Yes commander" replied kaidan as they stared moving through the woods as they were moving deeper into the woods the geth charged at them with Jane aiming down her avenger sights shooting the drones down and taking cover by a tree, and kaidan used his biotics and used pull to get them closer as he shot them with his pistol destroying them as they move out of the woods they see a lone soldier running away from the geth and jumps behind a wall and takes her avenger rifle out and aims down the sights at the drones and begins firing, seeing they need help shepherd and kaidan rush down the hill to aid them with the three of them shooting the geth with their rifles and using biotics to destroy them.

Shepherd walk up to the soldier " you ok there soldier " looking at her making sure she ok, "yes ma'am " replied the soldier " what's your name soldier and where the rest of your unit "asked shepherd kindly at the marine "gunnery chief Ashley Williams of the 212th im the only one who made it from my unit, there are three people I know who are still alive two doctors and a man we found wandering around earlier today called raiden he's taking the doctors to safety". Ashley replied while looking at shepherd.

"Could this raiden be the one who started the attack in the first place " asked shepherd. It sounded suspicious that a random man appeared the same day the attack started

"i don't think so I mean he was with us when they were attacking and he was the one who lead the charge against them tho he did say something weird when we met him " replied ash causing the two to look at her, what did he say " asked kaidan. While keeping an eye out encase more geth showed up.

" he said the last thing he remembers is being knocked out but the year was 2016 " Ashley said shocking the two.

" he must be nuttier then a squirrels den " said shepherd laughing at her own joke

"gezz tough crowd " she said seeing no one was laughing. come on lets see if we can find this raiden and the beacon " she said walking down the hill seeing the carnage left of the geth there were crushed heads , craters everywhere , arms all over the place.

What the hell happened here " asked kaidan seeing the remains off the geth.

That's what raiden did he picked them up by the heads and crushed them with his hands then he shot beams out off his hands and don't get me started with his swords " Ashley replied still amazed at what he did it seemed like something out off a animÃ©(:D)then she looked at the other two to see the shocked looks on there faces.

"_beams from his hands , she must be losing it "_she thought, "what is this raiden a krogon "asked shepherd "_i cant see a human ripping the geth apart like this " _she thought to herself.

"no he human I think tho his hair seems to defy gravity and he has black eyes no pupils " Ashley said to the two as they walked down the hill and saw the beacon was no longer there so decided to head up to the camp up the top off the hill and upon getting there they saw that the husks were dead on the floor with limbs missing " damn if this raiden keeps this up im going to be out off the job " commented shepherd looking around the camp they saw there was a lock on one building going up to the building she told the others to get ready as they did she opened the door and as soon as she got into the building she saw two doctors in the corner.

" calm down were not going to hurt you im commander shepherd of the alliance " shepherd told the two who calmed down though they were still shocked at what raiden could do.

"were is raiden I thought he was staying with you " Ashley asked nervously hoping he wasn't dead, he seemed like an ok guy when they spoke and he was polite thou she could tell he was hiding something.

He's not human I tell you the things he could do no human can do that then when you left us heâ€¦." the female doctor said, what did he do" asked shepherd "_if he hurt them I will string him up by his balls when I find him" shepherd_ thought angrily" he picked us up and carried us under his arm and he flew us here " said the doctor.

" _so this raiden has super strength, can shoot blasts out of his hands and now he can fly, what is he some kind of super hero. _shepherd thought while Ashley and kaidan were looking at the doctor like she was crazy, before the three of them left and walked down the hill to look for the beacon, as they were walking down the hill they saw geth and husks charging at them getting the weapons out the started firing at them.

Jane took the left/kaiden the middle and Ashley right, as the shot the geth who got too close to them, the husks were the main problem as they took most of their health down they let out a roar that took down their shields knocking them back before Jane ran up to the husk and kicked it over then aimed her rifle at its head then fired as all the blue blood splattered everywhere looking over her shoulder she said to the other two " come on we need to find that beacon " as they all ran down down the hill to see nihlus with a dock worker (HE'S ALIVE) though he looked like he had seen better days.

raiden was currently flying around the planet when he saw two aliens talking to each other they seemed to know each other as the one in black armour turned his back to his friend and the other one pointed his gun at the other one.

Seeing this raiden aim his fingers like a gun and shouted out *magnum shot *(sounds stupid I know but I wanted an attack for raiden only) as a thin red beam shot from his fingers and headed towards the silver alien (its saren and nihlus) and blew his arm off just under the elbow making him scream in pain however he still shot nihlus in the back making him fall down, seeing his chance his chance raiden flew down and kicked saren in the chest lightly (for him)making him go flying over the banister, deciding to either help the down an injured turian or go after the one who is missing his arm, he decided to help the one on the floor he would of gave him a sensu bean but from his talks from the doctors apparently turians couldn't eat the same food as humans(im not sure if a saian can eat the turians food but in this story raiden can eat anything and drink krogan beer like water coz there bad-ass like that :D) so he decided to pump his ki into him to keep him alive, raiden who could sense someone behind the crates " come out now or I make you " raiden said in a harsh voice scarring the person behind the crates.

CALM DOWN! Im unarmed don't kill me the dock worker said though as soon as he saw raiden in his ssj1 form in his opinion he looked like some kind of god he had a golden hair ,green eyes that looked into your soul and a golden aura .

"what were you doing hiding there when he was about to be killed you hid like a COWARD " raid roared the last bit as his golden aura exploded around him.

He had a gun what was I suppose to do throw my shoes at him " the dock worker said

" * signing * fine do you at least have any first aid kits behind there " raiden asked the dock worker.

No but I do have some medi-gel " he said while bringing up his omni-tool a orange hologram device appeared on his arm surprising raiden.

"medi-gel and what is that and will it help him " he asked as if his wound didn't stop bleeding soon he was going to die of blood-loss and if he could save at least one person on this planet then he could sleep easier "_damn I hope this universe has some dragon balls I cant just keep going back to my universe to make a wish if something bad happens " _raiden thought to himself while thinking of all the dead body's. (its up to you readers if you want there to be dragon-balls in this universe somewhere or have them stay only in the dbz universe) looking over as the dock worker applied the medi-gel to the turain and checking his power level he could tell he was getting better, looking at the worker he said " good work now tell me has anyone or thing passed though here resonantly" only the beacon a few hours ago they took it to the space port on the train" the worker replied "_hmm could the beacon be the reason for the attack , I don't see what could be so special about a piece of metal " _thought raiden." right well im going after the beacon keep him alive got it " raiden said to the dock worker who nodded at him " good" was all he said before shooting of into the sky, shocking the dock worker to the core " perhaps_ I should stop drinking "_ thought the worker before dragging the turain over to the crates.

BACK WITH SHEPHERD AND THE OTHERS

"Nihlus what the hell happened to you" asked shepherd while looking at him see him breathing heavily though she did see a arm laying on the floor and no body.

"i let my guard down on a person I thought was a friend I would have been dead if not from help from what my friend here says the golden warrior said nihlus looking at the three alliance solderers.

Shepherd just looked at the dockworker as if he was crazy."and this golden warrior what he look like and how did he save nihlus"

"he was like a god I tell you he had spiky golden hair, green eyes and a golden aura around him, the spectre saren aimed his gun at him points at nihlus then just as he pulled the trigger a red beam sliced his arm off its over there points at the arm on the floor then he told me to heal him then he shot off into the sky" he told them, shepherd was in deep thought "_wait ashley said this raiden could fire blasts , then the doctors said he flew could he be this golden warrior, _she thought before she turned and said "Williams what does this raiden look like " he has black spiky hair with one bang over his fore head ,black eyes tanned skin he wearing a red bandanna and wearing a black and red coat , black trousers, black boots with red tips and two swords on his back. "_hmm now I think about it he must really like the colourers black and red"_ thought ashley.

"_so not gold hair"_ shepherd thought "well nihlus will you be able to continual the mission with us or do you want me to call the _Normandy _for you .

"Sorry shepherd I can barely walk without falling down I will do nothing but slow you down" nihlus said

" ok I call the_ Normandy _for them to pick you up " shepherd said as she called the _Normandy _on her radio.

_Normandy _this is commander shepherd come in " she said over the radio.

"Shepherd this is Anderson what's the problem"  came the captain voice over the radio.

" we found nihlus here and he been shot by the spectre saren, he's ok but he needs a pick up " said shepherd.

Did you say saren? Don't worry shepherd well get him you must get the beacon before saren gets his hands who knows what he do if he gets his hands on it " said Anderson over the radio.

Yes sir " shepherd replied and told nihlus they would pick him up before the alliance solderers left and looked over the bannisters to see the body of saren but it wasn't there "bastard_ must off ran "_ thought shepherd before they went over the bridge as they were crossing the geth moved on there position shepherd ordered them to open fire on the geth, shepherd and Ashley drew the rifles and taking cover behind the wall of the bridge and began firing at the geth while kaidan using his biotic to pull the geth closer and shot them with his shotgun as they got close. Shepherd running down the ramp onto the train to see it full of geth, charging at them she took cover by the barrier on the train then threw a grenade at them killing two of them as the other five took notice of them she began firing at them as did kaidan and Ashley shooting them with there rifles and shotguns, the geth were relentless and began taking down the shields of the three , the juggernaut began running at them at full speed , coming out of cover Jane began firing her gun at it while throwing her last grenade at it taking its shields down while Ashley took her sniper rifle and aimed down the sights aiming it at the geths head then fired the gun making a whole in the geths head killing it in the process and making it fall to the floor," good work team now then let start this train get the beacon and get the hell off this planet " shepherd said while smiling at the two and getting nods back she pressed the button to make the train move.

Saren was currently walking down to his ship while panting his chest was killing him from the pain from that kick and holding his elbow where the rest off his arm used to be with a few geth behind him "_ that fucking human taking my arm off when I find him I will kill him "_ he thought angrily (he doesn't know he a saiyan) before he turned to the geth " secure the beacon then set the charges to blow leave no trace that we were here " he ordered the geth before getting into his giant ship with looked like a giant metal hand it was black and had red electricity surrounding it, it took off with him inside leaving eden prime.

Shepherd and the team had just arrived when the geth saw them get off the train and began firing at them causing them to get to cover,however before the geth could get closer there was a giant boom in the air (sonic boom) and the three looked up and what they saw shocked them to the core floating in mid air was a man with golden hair and aura looking like some kind off god, he then raised his hands and a ball of light appeared(they dont know its ki) and shot them towards the geth destroying them completely only ash was left, levitating down to the floor in front of them putting them on guard as they aimed there weapons at him,however once they saw his smile it made them at ease thought shepherd did blush a bit when she saw him up close.

Need any help " raiden asked with a deeper voice then normal. (not as deep as gokus ssj3 voice)

"_wait a minute spiky hair , wearing a coat , two swords"_ thought

Ashley before it clicked in her mind "RAIDEN! " shouted Ashley , surprising the other two this was the mystery man they had been hearing about.

Coming out of his ssj1 form surprising the shepherd and kaidan, raiden started scratching the back of his head and grinned (very goku like) making the the two woman of the group blush " hehehe I guess I got some explaining to do huh " raiden smiled at the solders

" HOW THE HELL CAN YOU FLY AND TURN GOLDEN " shouted ashly

"look Ashley I promise I will tell you everything after we sort these robots out and disarm the bombs " raiden said to the three ,thou he couldn't keep his eyes off the red head of the group she was without a doubt the most beautiful woman he ever saw in his life hair so red it looked like it was on fire, eyes a jade green like a super saiyan cute freckles just above her checks and lightly tanned skin in all she was perfect.

Unknown to raiden shepherd was looking at him as well , he had spiky hair with one bang lose, a red bandanna tied around his head, black eyes like coal that showed nothing but kindness, tanned skin and smile that made you weak at the knees (if you wernt commander shepherd) and even tho he was wearing a coat you could tell he was muscular and built like an ox all in all she had never seen a more perfect specimen of a man. getting her bearings first she introduced herself and vise vera looking around she saw the bomb near the train before she could get near it raiden appeared there and pick it up and threw it into the air then shooting a beam from his fingers hit the bomb making it explode, "dam raiden you must eat your vegetables " shepherd joked getting a chunked from him"come on these machines ain't going to kill them self s " raiden said before picking the three of them up and flying them up to the upper platform ,shepherd taking lead began shooting at the geth followed by raided with his swords slicing them in half, shepherd saw another bomb and brought out her omni- tool and began disarming it while the others fought off the geth, raiden charged at them and putting ki into his swords he sent a wave of energy at them (think like bleach)  slicing them apart with the energy looking behind him he saw the three looking at him with wide eyes , shepherd ran in front off him to get to the last bomb and disarming it , as she did that raiden saw a juggernaut charging at shepherd , raiden disappeared then reappeared behind it then grab it ripping it in half like it was nothing shocking the three who saw him him do it kaiden looked at shepherd and said " remind me not to piss him off" with shepherd nodding in agreement " noted " said shepherd in shock " come on lets move out" shepherd barked as they all walked down the ramp and saw the beacon and two geth guarding it, raiden looked at shepherd and said

" so you want these or should I do the honourers " he smirked at her.

She smiled at him " what a gentlemen you are I believe I have a go at them " she said as she took her sniper rifle out and shot one with a head shot then did then before the other one knew what happened she killed it with a head shot.

Area clear shepherd shouted to the other while she spoke to kaidan by the beacon, raiden was standing next to Ashley waiting for shepherd to call her ship, while they were waiting kaidan and shepherd got too close to the beacon and it started pulling them closer raiden seeing this grabbed the closest person possible which was kaidan and threw him out the way however raidens body went numb and prevented him from getting shepherd and he too was pulled towards the beacon and both shepherd and raiden started floated in mid air.

Ashley went to try and get them down but kaidan stopped her by pulling her back

NO! don't its too dangerous he warned her as they had no choice but to watch.

Raiden winched in pain as he saw images being forced into his mind against his will , he saw death and destruction people being slaughtered by some unknown race it felt like he'd gone 10 rounds with wiss again before the beacon exploded knocking him and shepherd out cold last thing he saw was the two soldiers running towards him and shepherd.

3. the normandy

Jane shepherd was the first to open her eyes as she heard voices by her bed looking around she could tell that she was in the medical room on the Normandy as she began getting up she heard Ashley voice " doctor " doctor chakwas I think she getting up" a woman around the age of 54 (I don't know her age so im going to guess) with greying hair lightly tanned skin, she looked pretty good for her age, she was wearing a black alliance medical uniform, came up to her bed as she sat up she had a kind smile as she spoke " shepherd good to see you up ,how are you feeling " shepherd smiled at the doctor " like the morning after shore leave " she joked " how long was I out for " she asked the doctor " about 14 hours tho your friend still hasn't woken up " replied the doctor looking behind shepherd "_friend "_ shepherd thought before she turned around to see raiden passed out on the bed behind her" what happened down there " she asked, when you and lieutenant alenko somehow activated the beacon when you got too close and raiden saw you both being pulled closer by the it and ran to help you both but he only managed to get kaidan out the way before he got pulled instead and you both just started floated into the air and both of you just stayed there for about 1 min before the beacon exploded knocking you both out , me and kaidan brought you both here " said ashley " thanks I owe you one " shepherd smiled at ash " so how is raiden doing " asked shepherd as she looked over at him.

"well he's not in any danger but I cant get a needle in his hand I have tried 5 times and it just bends as if I was pushing it into metal, from what ive heard from the ground team he not a normal human " chakwas said to the two while shepherd was looking at the guy in shock "_what is this guy a super hero ,he can fly, shoot blasts out of his hand, turn golden and now needle can puncher him "_ thought shepherd before speaking " well once he wakes up we'll have a little chat about him " shepherd said " well what about me have I got a clean bit off health " she asked chakwas

" yes you seem to be fine tho I did notice rapid eye movement usually done when having a nightmare any thing you like to add for the report " chakwas asked while looking at shepherd.

Shepherd looked like she was deep in thought " I sawâ€¦ im not sure what I saw death destruction people running for there lives it didn't make any sense " shepherd replied while sounding a lot more quite then usual .

" hmm I better add this to my report " before chakwas could finish her conversation captain Anderson walked in and looked at the still sleeping raiden and he couldn't help but be a little put off by him after hearing about what he could do but just looking at him he looked like a normal guy , captain Anderson was a man in his fifty's he had short black hair, brown eyes, dark skin and he was wearing a blue long sleeve alliance uniform. He turned his gaze away from raiden to look at the other three in the room " hows are xo holding up " Anderson asked the doctor.

"well from the scans ive done she going to be fine " chakwas said just before they heard raiden making a noise over in his bed " hmmm yes you do it right there" he said while he was sleeping making a blush appear on Jane's and Ashley face while Anderson and chakwas were trying not to laugh " that's right pour that maple syrup on my pancakes you beautiful woman who lives in my house "  (gotta love team four star)  he mumbled in his sleep getting laugh from everyone in the room making him wake up.

Opening his eyes he could see this wasn't where he last was he was in a dark coloured room looking over he saw four people in the room with him two of the people he didn't recognise then he saw ash over in the corner and the beautiful red head with eyes that could light a room up shepherd "_ SNAP OUT OFF IT RAIDEN YOUR A SAIYAN NOT A LOVE SICK PUPPY !" _ he screamed in his mind before talking to them " hey soâ€¦. Hows everyone doing today " raiden smiled at the group as he got off the bed doing a few stretches then sitting back on the bed.

Anderson went up to him and held his hand out as raiden shakes hands with him" nice to meet you son im captain Anderson I like to thank you for your help down on eden prime if you went there nihlus would of died " Anderson smiled " he he no problem so that planet was called eden prime eh " he asked getting a nod from Anderson, before Jane , Ashley and chakwas came over " now come on how you do all that stuff I never seen a human like you " Jane said to raiden getting a smirk from him " well you just answered your question right there shepherd " getting strange looks from them as he stood up and took his coat off getting blushes from Jane and Ashley seeing his ripped mussels and odd looks from Anderson seeing his amour it was unlike anything he'd ever seen before, then his furry belt moved then he unwrapped it from his waist showing it not to be a belt but a tail .

"you have a tail a tail what the hell ! " Shouted Ashley while the others couldn't believe what they were seeing a monkey like tail , " well you see im not human I just look like one" he said to the four who were still shocked at the tail wagging behind him.

Im actually a saiyen warrior from planet vegeta " he told the four while shepherd snapping out off her trance spoke " how come we've never seen your people before if your here then your people before must have space travel for you to be here " well because two reasons

"he looked down to the floor sadly then looked into her jade eyes " one my people and planet was wiped out leaving only 3 full- blooded saian left " he sad sadly even though he had got past the pain of finding out about his race dying it still hurt to talk about it,looking at the faces of everyone he could see they couldn't believe what he told them " everyone of your race but if you don't mind me asking how did it happen " asked shepherd while looking in raidens coal coloured eyes sadly " _I cant even imagine what that would be like to be one off the last off my kind "_ shepherd thought.

A tyrant called freeza who my people worked for he called himself the emperor of the universe started to fire my people rise in power and began to fear the rise of a super saian that would challage his power,tho his fear came to life when a saian called bardock power was getting stronger with each mission he went on , you see a saian who has a near death experience or get beaten badly get what we call a zenkai boost which makes us stronger, faster and more durable then before " he explains to the group shocking them with this information " bardock had found his team dead on planet meat expect for his best friend tora (I think thats his name) and he told bardock that freeza had his team ambushed then killed because they were getting too strong after that he died in his arms then bardock went and fought freezas men it was him vs 1000 men he charged head first he cared for nothing but freezas dead body at his feet, he finely reached his ship and called him out out , oh and fun fact saiyans can breath in space with out suits (I think they can I mean if bardock can then so can raiden) he told freeza that we wernt going to work for him anymore and he threw his attack at him and freeza just laughed when his attack was absorbed into his then threw his attack at bardock killing all his own men and bardock then carrid on till it hit the planet destroying it and wipping it out only a few survived the saian prince vegeta, and kakorot or his earth name goku and me (I know that nappa,brolly,radids,turtles did two but there dead so they don't matter)

the other just looked completely shocked that someone had that much power to destroy entire planets

" you said this freeza feared a super saian what is it " asked Jane while looking at raiden.

He smirked at her " you saw it when I was golden " he said surprising them he was the thing this freeza feared .

So what happened to this freeza is he still alive " jane asked

" no bardocks son goku beat him on planet namek tho he did spare his life though he later came too earth to kill him in revenge but vegeta's son killed him" he told them.

" wait you said he came too earth he he did we would off seen his ship said Anderson.

" that would be true if he lived in your universe " he said the others and they just looked at him like he grew a second head but the look in his eyes you could tell he wasn't joking around.

"have you got any proof of your claims " ask Jane

he smiled at her "better I can show you , I learned a technique that allows me to show people my memoires (im not sure if such a technique but for this story there is) its up to you though if you want to see them not all of its nice and I can only show one person at a time " he told jane who thought about it for a while before nodding she walk over to him as he stood up he was quite tall now she really looked at him her head came up to the top of his chest, he put his hand on her head " close your eyes " he told her as she did she started seeing all his recent life , she saw when he was summoned by the dragon and meeting his best friend trunks,then see saw him fighting through time when it messed up , how he fought , nappa,vegeta when they came to his earth, the ginu force on namekand freeza, then fighting the androids and cell with the z fighters,thn how he helped future trunks out in his time line,fighting magin buu with goku and vegeta, and killing mira,fighting beerus the god of destruction when he came to earth,and his fight with demigra saving all of time and space, she saw toki toki city and all the aliens she'd never seen before and she saw all of his training with his mentors and saw how he came here with the help of the dragon which in its self was amazing having any wish you wanted and how he got to eden prime.

After coming out of the vision which was a lot nicer then the beacon she really saw him in another light he was with out a doubt the strongest being in this universe . He did the same with everyone else in the room and like shepherd they were beyond shocked at what he had done in the last year alone.

" I cant believe it a whole other universe out there so different from ours " said Ashley with the others agreeing before anyone could say anything else a monstrous sound rang though the room:

ROOOOOOOR! Putting everyone on guard before they heard chucking from raiden he scrached the back off his head and smiling at them " hehehehe been a while since I had any food " before they all sweat dropped " well do you want some food "asked Anderson you wouldn't have enough food for a saiyan don't worry I got something in my coat he said before digging though his coat pocket getting a white capsule out " what that going to do asked Jane raiden just smiled at them before throwing it on the bed and a poof of smoke appeared before it disappeared leaving a brown bag of sensu beans picking the bag up he took out a green bean before eating it " awww that's better all full " he said as he pet his belly " really one bean and your full "asked Jane

" theses are not normal beans there sensu beans they heal any injury's expect missing limbs and keep a human fed for ten days (for a saiyan its about a day if they dont train or fight) " raiden told them getting looks of surprise from them , raiden took a bean out " don't believe me try one " he smiled as he looked at shepherd he took it out of his hands and put it in her mouth and bit into it and felt as she'd just had a full course meal and felt as if she could fight the geth all by herself with how much energy she had. the soreness from her body disappeared she was amazed at what the little green bean could do and everyone else had one two and they couldn't believe it either .

I really have got to grow some more soon don't wanna run out now do I
" he said with a smile

well anyway to the reason I was here I like to speak to the commander in_ private _" Anderson said to the rest off them with that they all left the room but just as raiden was about to leave Anderson called him back " not you raiden I need to have a word with you too " he told him with raiden agreeing.

" now then what happened down there with the beacon and saren " he asked them " well I don't know the whole story but I was flying in the air when I saw him and nihlus talking I was going to them to warn them about the geth when nihlus turned his back on saren then he took his gun out and aimed it at nihlus seeing he was going to shoot him I shot a beam at him taking his arm off , is nihlus ok he didn't look that good when I last saw him " he is fine he with are helmsmen at the moment he sends his thanks. Said Anderson " well with the beacon
I sawâ€¦| im not sure what I saw people were running scared there was death and destruction everywhere " said jane while looking at Anderson " thats not what I saw " raiden said to Jane " I saw something wiping the people out destroying everything it was a massacrer " he said to the two off them.

Hmm it seems that the beacon split the vision in two parts anyway I spoke to nihlus and he going to tell the council about the geth and saren but he needs you two there with him and the ground team

"wait what about me being an unidentified alien species I doubt this council will let me explore where ever we are going " raiden said to Anderson, Anderson had to agree this would bring up problems " don't worry I sure nihlus will cover for you " he said before turning to shepherd " well anyway Its a good thing your both up were just about half an hour away from the citadel tell joker to land as soon as we got clearance" he told jane then he left.

"So you know wear my swords are shepherd " raiden asked with a smile while looking around.

" hmm I expect there outside the room near the lockers are " replied shepherd " well any-wear I can change I wouldn't want to make my first time appearance in this old thing " he smirked at her.

"No I guess we wouldn't, would we cant have you be seen with that old thing " he smiled at him in the short time she knew him she could tell he had the same sense of humour that she did and that was fine with her, she loved being in the army but the solders were real sticks in the mud.

HA! you know shepherd your all right I thought you would be a sour puss like most in the army but you proved me wrong " he smiled at her causing her to blush "_ he has a really nice smile " _jane thought " yeah well I am to please anyway I take you to the wash room " jane said as raiden took the capsule that had his clothes in them and sealed his coat in one then took the rest with him to the bath room

As they were both walking though the normandy everyone stopped what they were doing to look at the two walking thought tho the female crew were looking at the heavily muscled raiden

he that one everyone said can fly

I thought they said he had gold hair

he so handsome think he got a girl friend

raiden had to laugh at the last two comments it seemed no matter what universe he was in the ladies couldn't get enough of the saiyans he smirked to himself as he walked passed them all.

Him and jane finely reached the changing room she took him in there to show him wear everything was and how to work the shower.

" well know you how to work the shower take your clothes off and puâ€¦ she didn't get to finish her sentence as he already began taking his top part of his armour off chucking it on the floor show his bear back to her which had a few scars and was very muscular she couldn't help but blush as soon as she realized that he was taking his clothes off

" WAIT FOR ME TO LEAVE FIRST IDIOT! " shepherd shouted at him before she stormed out off the room with a blush on her face.

Raiden couldn't help but smirk at her as she left "_hehehe that's one way to get her out of here" _he thought to himself before taking the rest off his gear off and stepping into the shower and letting the hot water go over him " _I help but think this saren guy is up to something more then just attacking humanity he was after the beacon but why, he had to have some other motive behind this , then again I don't know anything about this universe maybe this is normal between humans and turains" _he thought to himself as he got out of the shower and using the towel that shepherd gave him he grabbed the capsule that held his black gi_ ,_ putting his boxers on first then his black and red gi on (black gi like goku in dragon ball super , red wrist band and boots and his red bandanna tied around his head) before putting his saian amour away in the capsule he put the other capsules away in his pocket then exited the shower room to see shepherd there waiting for him.

" so how do I look my lady " he smirked at her.

" hmm well I surpose you do for now tho you do seem to have a black and red obsession , well anyway here are your swords lets go meet joker " she said as he strapped his swords to his back , he might off looked good in his gi but she wasnt going to tell him that she was commander shepherd dam it not some school girl with a crush

Walking though the ship with jane side they stood in awkward silence in the elevator " huh no matter what universe im in they all have slow elevators " raiden said to himself making shepherd laugh.

As they left the lift they walked up to cockpit nihlus seeing the two walk up tured to greet them " aww commander shepherd good to see you and I like to thank you for saving my lifeâ€¦. " nihlus said as he held his hand out to raiden which raiden shock " name raiden good to see you look better then last time I saw you " he smiled smiled at him .

" well thank you raiden I have you to thank for that though to to you the truth im not used to seeing humans fly " nihlus said to raiden .

" ha well thats because im not human and was wondering how im going to get though this citadel when people have never seen my people before it could bring problems " said raiden

" your not human well stay with me and they let you though don't worry about it anyway I need you and shepherd and the ground team to come with me to the council to tell them about eden prime it shouldn't take long still hard to believe that saren betrayed the council like this ive know him for a long time .

" we'll there is no worse enemy then an old friend " raiden said sage like.

Nihlus could only nod at his words, joker went though the mass relay and the citadel appeared in view I was without a doubt one of the beautiful sights he ever seen it easier making toki toki city look like comparing a paddling pool to the ocean looking at it shepherd couldn't help but smile at him he was like a kid in a candy store.

Your eyes get any bigger there pop out she smirked at him.

Well im not worried as im sure commander shepherd will be there to save the day if I cant " he smirked back at her causing them both to laugh at each other.

_Well were here __I cant help but think my next adventure is just beginning_" thought raiden
